Welcome to the final seminar of the VARAVA project 16.11.2022

We welcome you to the final seminar of the VARAVA project on 16.11.2022 at 13-16.

Come and listen to the nationwide results in identifying racism in universities of applied sciences, anti-racist teaching and proposals for measures, and discuss the topic of the day with us.

Varava – Host UAS nationwide against racism project has focused on developing the ability of universities of applied sciences to identify structural racism and supporting students from applying for studies all the way to employment, as well as strengthening anti-racist teaching methods.

The seminar will be carried out as a hybrid (on site & online): in Tampere, at the Työväenmuseo Werstas and online.

You can come to the venue as early as 12 noon, when you will have a coffee or tea, network and visit the exhibition at Werstas for free.
